IG UNITS UNDER OUHM

AFFORDABLE SHELTER

A total of 4,849 houses would be built under these projects at a cost of around ₹14,588 crore, he said.

With this additional sanction, the total number of houses sanctioned under OUHM has increased to 59,121 in 110 ULBs, of which, work orders for 38,000 houses have been issued while 2,376 units have been completed.

Construction of the remaining houses is under progress. The left out three ULBs have been asked to send the DPRs quickly. Dalai said that those ULBs would be involved in the scheme as and when they send the DPRs.

According to official sources, these are beneficiary-led houses. Which means the houses will be built by beneficiaries themselves. On an average, a dwelling unit of around 21 to 30 sq mt has been estimated to cost around ₹3 lakh. Out of this, the beneficiary will get a financial assistance of around ₹2 lakh from the government and the remaining will be borne by the beneficiary.

Govt push to millet for nutritious diet

POST NEWS NETWORK

Bhubaneswar, May 21: The state government Monday started selling millet-based dishes in its effort to promote the "nutritious" cereal.

In its drive to popularise millet, the government in association with Nabakrushna Choudhury Centre for Development Studies (NCDS) and Watershed Support Services and Activity Network (WASSAN), will set up stalls at two places in the city every day under the Millets Mission Odisha, an official said Monday.

The campaign will continue till June 1.

The first two stalls were opened near Tech Mahindra and KIIT Monday.

The stalls will be opened near Kalinga Hospital and XIMB Tuesday, CRPF square and passport office May 23, Baramunda bus stand and Khandagiri caves May 24, Kalpana square and railway station May 25, Lingaraj temple and state museum May 26, AG square and Ram Mandir May 27, Unit-I market and Madhusudan Park May 29, Fortune Tower and Infocity May 30, Sum Hospital and Khandagiri Caves May 31, and

The state government, in association with NCDS and WASSAN, sets up food stalls at two places in the capital city under its Millets Mission Odisha Apollo Hospital and Pantaloons, Sahid Nagar June 1.

Notably, millets are climate-resilient, healthy and nutritious, and so, they have been officially re-named as Nutri Cereals. Millets Mission Odisha is an initiative by the state government that was announced in the 2016-Budget and implemented in the Kharif season of 2017.

Recently, Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik announced ₹100 crore for the Mission, which will be extended from 30 blocks of seven districts to 55 blocks across 11 districts, the official added.

There are also plans for introducing millets in Anganwadis under Integrated Child Development Scheme (ICDS) and schools under Mid-Day Meal (MDM) scheme.

and projects coordinator Anil Dhir apprised Singh of the difficulties faced by scholars and researchers who have to go to Delhi to access the records.

The National Archives of India is under the Union Ministry of Culture and has a Regional Office at Bhopal and three Records Centres at Jaipur, Puducherry and Bhubaneswar.

If the originals could not be brought, the digitised version and microfilm copies could be easily made available, he said adding a proper catalogue and listing of the Odisha papers should be made and published as a book.

Dhir said important documents are the original will of Maharaja Anjit Singh in which he had bequeathed the Koh-I-Noor to Shree Jagannath Temple should be displayed at the Bhubaneswar Centre.

One arrested for youth's murder

POST NEWS NETWORK

Puri, May 21: Police nabbed a person here Monday in connection with the murder of Maheswar Martha, a resident of Harachandi Sahi, who was hacked to death in the night of May 17.

The accused was identified as Niranjan Maharana (23) of Maharana Sahi under Baliapanda police limits. Reportedly, police have also seized a blood-stained sword from his possession.

It is suspected that three more persons are involved in the murder, said Town police station inspector-in-charge Umashankar Singh adding that the phone numbers of the suspects are under the scanner.

Martha was attacked by a group of people near his house Thursday night allegedly over a past rivalry. He was rushed to the Puri district headquarters hospital where he succumbed to his injuries.
